

The Graduating Class members of 2010 have made their final decisions on the colleges and universities they will be attending. Please join us in congratulating:

Dineke Bernier who has decided to attend Drury University in Springfield, Missouri where she will be swimming and studying very hard.

Kaylon Brown who has decided to attend the University of Vermont in Burlington, Vermont where she will be training as a Triathlete and studying very hard.

Hilary Dion who has decided to attend the University of Southern Maine where she will be studying hard and continuing her swimming with Coastal Maine Aquatics.

Zach Gavin who has decided to attend Swarthmore College in Swarthmore Pennsylvania where he will be studying hard and swimming.

Robby Gravel who has signed an early Letter of Intent to swim with LaSalle University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and has been accepted into the School of Business.

Amelia Lundkvist who has decided to attend Brandeis University where she will study Science and participate in Track and Swimming.

Chris Makrides who has decided to attend Bates College in Lewiston, Maine where he plans to study very hard and swim.

Adam Saltz who has decided to attend the accelerated seven-year dental program at Nova Southeastern University where he will be studying very, very hard and dreaming constantly of his days of yore swimming with CMA!
